To Whom it May Concern:

I am seeking an interpretation of the denial of 2 building permits filed with the City of Albany's Division of Buildings & Regulatory Compliance. On Feb 2nd I filed an application number 66360 for a building permit to reopen the above address, as RBC PLATINUM LOUNGE AND RESTAURANT. On February 13, I received a letter stating I was denied and needed special use permit. After meeting with Bradley Glass of Planning I learned that Chapter 375 allowed me to amend my original application, as he couldn't understand why I would need a special use permit. After reading the city's definitions, I realized a Tavern was what I was opening as "lounge" was not defined in the terms. On Monday February 18, I amended my application. Since then I have been calling Vince DiBiase and trying to get my permit, thus allowing me to turn on the power. On March 1st a representative for myself went in the office and was told by Vince DiBiase that the amended application was denied. When asked for a denial letter he was told NO. When he questioned the denial he was told by Vince that he was not going to review it that it was just denied.

On March 4th I refiled a new building permit application number 66485, on this application I called it PLATINUM TAVERN/PUB as the term tavern is in Chapter 375. The area is zoned C-3 in which a tavern or pub is allowed. The address held a tavern/restaurant for more than a decade. Since its closing it has been empty. I am not asking to open it for anything other than the zoning allows, therefore there is no reason for the denial. Please see attached a copy of the building permit application #66485 I ask you is there any legal reason why I am denied? The only thing that will be changed on the building is the sign and the inside will be painted and cleaned.

I would like to thank you in advance for your time and consideration on this matter.

Please feel free to call me at the above number if there are any questions.
