

Dr. Brenda Robinson is a strong community and Health Equity advocate. She serves on many boards and committees as well. She wears many hats in the City of Albany where she was born and raised, and voluntarily serves her community which she loves. Dr. B Robinson serves as the City of Albany Commission on Human Rights Chairperson. She is the CEO/Founder of the Black Nurses Coalition, Inc. as was as the City of Albany Public Library Board Trustee. She diligently serves as the Arbor Hill Neighborhood President also. She is a published author, facilitator and organizer. Dr. B Robinson has also served our Veterans at the Veteran Health Administration for over 27 years and counting.