I am currently the President of the Albany Police Detective Union. I live in Albany with my wife and two children. I have lived in Albany since 1985 and attended graduated from Christian Brothers Academy when it was still in Albany. I then went on to graduate from Suny Albany with a degree in History and minor in economics in 1998.. I then went on to work at Albany High School as a Full time Building substitute teacher from 1998 -2001. I also worked nights part time at Parsons Children and Family Center during this time. I was then sworn in as an Albany Police officer on January 18, 2001 and have been proud to serve this community since that day.
