

Lee is a licensed New York State Architect providing architectural services and specializing in the preservation and rehabilitation of historic structures. He is knowledgeable in assessing existing conditions of buildings, planning a strategy for returning a building into code compliant service, and designating interior and exterior features and spaces required to maintain a structures' historic and architectural significance.

Lee's previous work experience includes time spent as a Junior Historic Sites Restoration Coordinator with the New York State Office of Historic Preservation, Architect with Mesick, Cohen, Waite Architects, John G. Waite Associates, and then, SEARCH. Most recently he served as a Rehab Specialist with the South End Improvement Corporation.

Lee received a diploma from the High School of Art & Design, New York, NY, and an Bachelor's degree in Architecture from Syracuse University.

Lee loves spending time with his Wife, driving, and performing handyman chores.