4	We also should consider where we could place public restrooms with staff to have oversight of how long a person is in there to provide a space for people to use the restroom but also to prevent overdoses.	6/27/2021 2:19 PM
5	A center that is safe for all at all hours of the day and weekends	6/27/2021 7:14 AM
6	The elderly need to be considered but with the state of violence in Albany, children ages 11-25 need a variety of activities they can find a passion for and a reason to "do the right thing". They have to be shown options. There has to be more than the streets. Right now the streets offer the "Most opportunity" and not a positive one. Help give our children and young adults hope!	6/26/2021 7:47 PM
7	Get the word out and get all stakeholders involved. Educate the residents in the process to bring this to reality. Don't have the political machine make decisions without the residents. Make sure people of color are at the table and not just there for ribbon cutting. Develop streams of revenue that can be turned over and invested in the community.	6/26/2021 7:06 PM

14	ACDA should satellite their services around Albany. In Sheridan and the South End and at the new west hill center . Housing Blight is the biggest problem in it's tax loss, and health / quality of life degradation. The ACDA should have multiple offices around the city and the stimulus re-open money should help the city re-triple its effort to tackle housing first and foremost .	6/21/2021 11:06 PM
15	I believe our youth need more And the city of Albany.	6/21/2021 1:27 PM
16	Dave Graham and Cook Barrett have successfully run a teen night program for 20 years. Providing space, fostering and building community, mentoring hundreds if not thousands. They have outlived three facilities. Every Albany resident 35 and under reminisces of its impact and value. The program began during the height of the uptown downtown violent rivalry. Police would scratch their heads wondering how 200+ teens could load a space to play hoop and socialize from rival neighborhoods and key players in the midst and no violence would erupt. The malls loved it because their crimes went down during the teen night program	6/21/2021 10:53 AM

19	Find a area where uptown and downtown youth can go not just West Albany. Growing up in Albany there were places downtown, uptown and north Albany.	6/19/2021 10:38 AM

35	Though the community center is set for West Hill, I think it should be a place that brings the entire city together.	6/10/2021 12:57 AM
36	Please just make it happen. We shouldn't have to beg for something like this or wait another decade to see it come to fruition. I've lived in Albany my whole 45 years of life, and there has not ever been a place like this, meanwhile communities just outside our city have them, and they're super successful. I mean, this is the capital of NYS...why are we the last to thrive??	5/29/2021 2:57 PM
