Approval of sub recipient agreement between the City of Albany and ACDA regarding the CPD fund transfer to the City
Staff advised the Board of a sub recipient agreement between the City of Albany and ACDA regarding the CPD fund transfer to the City. One master sub recipient agreement ACDA will administer the totality of the community development program; all of the funding sources. The City will continue to receive funds, allot them to ACDA, who will then distribute them to various organizations. Kenneth Bennett suggests adding a quarterly report to the sub recipient draft. Faye Andrews and Mike Yevoli comit to quarterly report.

Budget Update
Staff advised the Board that ACDA has captured funds while avoiding an anticipated 5% cut. Also, additional funding has been put into revitalization programs. Home entitlement programs were cut roughly 2%, while a conservative recapture of CDBG-R funds has remained in tact. Kenneth Bennett expresses concern that the budget numbers could change in the future. Mike Yevoli they should not; Phil Calderon notes that the budget is a recommendation and should the figures change it will be put before the Common Council.

A motion to adopt the Resolution to pass the budget draft was made by Phil Calderon and seconded by Tara Wells. A vote being taken, the Resolution passed unanimously.
